Church Doctrine

Notwithstanding unanimously-agreed-upon future additions, deletions and/or modifications, BIFF Ministries is created and founded upon the establishment, furtherance and maintenance of the following principles and guidelines:

This Church, its Board, its Officers and all its members, individually and collectively hereby recognize, accept and promise to abide by the following beliefs and tenets. All (a) religions, sects and systems of belief are valid and equal with none being of any more or less value than another; (b) races are equal with none being of any more or less value than another; and, (c) humans are equal with none being of any more or less value than another. (d) In addition, this Church promulgates and sanctifies all personal choices and practices in all aspects of an individual's life and the lives of their children, especially but not limited to, such personal choices and practices as pertain to life, death, health and liberty. (e) Furthermore, BIFF Ministries' beliefs and messages, among other aspects and theses, encompasses all facets of spiritual, mental, emotional and physical health and wellbeing.

With full acceptance, as evidenced by a signed and witnessed application as well as regular participation and strict adherence to these initial and subsequent unanimously-agreed-upon principles, tenets, additions, deletions and/or modifications, said applicant is welcomed as, and shall remain, a faithful member in good standing and fellowship of this Church.

Participation

in this Ministry shall include, but not be limited to, live and/or virtual meetings, emails, texts, blogs, letters, individual and/or group telephone calls as well as any and all other means of communication as initiated and directed by the Pastor or Board. Any accepted member of this Ministry may freely communicate with the Pastor, the Ministry and/or with any or all other accepted members of this Ministry with full adherence to the founding principles and tenets or unanimously-agreed-upon future additions, deletions and/or modifications.

Termination

of membership without recourse may and can occur by review of any reported and verified failure of adherence to any of the founding principles and tenets or unanimously-agreed-upon future additions, deletions and/or modifications with concurrence of a unanimous vote of the Board.

By your signature below, you avow you have read and agree with BIFF Ministries' Doctrine in its entirety. In addition, you agree to participate in church meetings whenever possible and understand the terms and finality of termination.
